

I support keeping Wisconsin's Do Not Call List intact. Wisconsin's legislation is more restrictive than the federal legislation and, in my mind, better meets my requirements. I believe the government must put a higher priority on its citizen's wishes than its corporations.